1. Name:

1.01 The Club shall be called Quakers Hill Pirates Baseball Club Inc. (the “Club”)

2. Purpose:

2.01 The promotion, control and management of the game of Baseball, Softball, Soft Toss and Teeball under its auspices.

3. Constitution:

3.01 The Club shall consist of members as follows: Executive Committee, General Committee, Life Members, Individual Members, Junior Members and Parent/Guardian Members as hereinafter provided.

4. Admission and Affiliation of Clubs or Associations.

4.01 Any Club or Team applying for admission to the Club may be admitted, if approved, by the Executive Committee.

4.02 The annual subscription of each affiliated team together with the due date for payment shall be established for each year by the Executive Committee for that year.

5. Membership

5.01 A person is eligible to be a member of the Club if:

- (a) the person is a natural person, and
- (b) the person has completed an application for membership, agreed to the terms and conditions of membership, agrees to adhere to the Club “Code of Conduct” and fully paid the annual membership fee (as determined by the standing Executive Committee at the time)
- (c) In the event the person nominating for membership is under the age of 18 years, the application and consent for membership will be completed and represented by the parent/legal guardian (“parent member”) of the junior member

5.02 An eligible person may apply for membership by:

- (a) Completing and lodging the Club’s prescribed membership form with the Executive Committee, and;
- (b) paying the appropriate membership fee

5.03 The Club may use its discretion to accept or reject an application and the Club cannot be compelled to provide any reason for the acceptance or rejection

5.04 If the Club rejects an application for membership, it shall immediately refund any fees paid with the application

5.05 If the Club accepts an application, the applicant shall become a member and membership is deemed to commence upon acceptance of the application. The Register shall be updated and the member thereby accepts and agrees to comply with the Club's Code of Conduct as amended by the Executive Committee from time to time.

5.06 The club shall keep and maintain a Register of Members in which it shall at the very least record:

- (a) the full name, address and date of entry of each member;
- (b) the category of membership of each member; and
- (c) where applicable the date of termination of membership of any member

5.07 The Members of the Club shall consist of:

- (a) Individual Members, being members over the age of 18 years, who subject to the constitution, have no right to receive a notice of General Meeting or to be present, to debate and/or vote at a General Meeting;
- (b) Junior Members, being under the age of the 18 years, who subject to the constitution, have no right to receive a notice of General Meeting or to be present, to debate and/or vote at a General Meeting;
- (c) Parent/Guardian Members, being the parent or legal guardian of a Junior Member and who on behalf of the Junior Member has applied for membership and consented to the Club's terms and conditions of same, who subject to the constitution, have no right to receive a notice of General Meeting or to be present, to debate and/or vote at a General Meeting;
- (d) Life Members in accordance with clause 31 herein, who subject to the constitution, have the right to receive a notice of General Meeting and to be present, to debate and to vote at a General Meeting;
- (e) Individual Members holding office of Executive Committee or General Committee in accordance with clause 19 herein, who subject to the constitution, have the right to receive a notice of General Meeting and to be present, to debate and for members of the Executive Committee to vote at a General Meeting;

5.08 Members are required to renew their membership annually in accordance with the procedures set down by the Executive Committee from time to time and pay an annual membership fee in such amount as determined for that category of membership by the Executive Committee each year.

6. Cessation of membership

6.01 A person ceases to be a member of the Club if the person:

- (a) dies, or

- (b) resigns membership, or
- (c) is expelled from the Club, or
- (d) fails to pay the annual membership fee within 3 months after the fee is due.

7. Membership entitlements not transferable

7.01 A right, privilege or obligation which a person has by reason of being a member of the Club:

- (a) is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person, except;
 - (i) in the case of a Junior Member under the age of 18 years where the Parent/Legal guardian of the Junior Member may carry out such rights, privileges or obligations on behalf of the Junior Member as the Executive Committee deems appropriate in the circumstances from time to time.
- (b) terminates on cessation of the person's membership.

8. Resignation of membership

8.01 A member of the Club may resign from membership of the Club by:

- (a) first giving to the secretary written notice of at least one month (or such other period as the committee may determine) of the member's intention to resign and, on the expiration of the period of notice, the member ceases to be a member.

8.02 If a member of the Club ceases to be a member under subclause 8.01(a) and in every other case where a member ceases to hold membership, the Secretary must make an appropriate entry in the Register of Members recording the date on which the member ceased to be a member.

9. Members' liabilities

The liability of a member of the Club to contribute towards the payment of the debts and liabilities of the Club or the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up of the Club is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid by the member in respect of membership of the Club as required by clause 5.

10. Disciplining of members

10.01 A complaint may be made to the Executive Committee by any person that as a member of the Club:

- (a) has refused or neglected to comply with a provision or provisions of this constitution, or
- (b) has wilfully acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the Club.

10.02 The Executive Committee may refuse to deal with a complaint if it considers the complaint to be trivial or vexatious in nature.

10.03 If the Executive Committee decides to deal with the complaint, the Executive Committee:

- (a) must cause notice of the complaint to be served on the member concerned, and
- (b) must give the member at least 14 days from the time the notice is served within which to make submissions to the Executive Committee in connection with the complaint, and
- (c) must take into consideration any submissions made by the member in connection with the complaint.

10.04 If the complaint or action is as a result of a breach by a team, player, official, parent member, or other member of the Club's Code of Conduct policy, the member(s) will be subject to the provisions of the Club's Member Disciplinary Policy and Indicative Penalty Schedule as the guiding process for disciplinary action against the member.

10.05 The Club's Disciplinary Panel shall be comprised of three persons appointed by the Executive Committee, one of whom will be designated as the Chairperson. At the Hearing, the Chairperson of the Disciplinary Panel shall have a deliberate vote as well as a casting vote.

10.06 Any team, player, official, parent member, or other member whilst under suspension shall forfeit its rights and privileges under the Club. Suspended members shall cease to serve on the Executive or any other Committee position for judgments pertaining to the suspension, and they shall be debarred from competing in any match held under the auspices of the Club.

10.07 The Secretary of the Club shall within 3 days notify Club Committee Members of all suspensions and disqualifications imposed by the Club.

10.08 The Executive Committee may, by resolution, or on the recommendation of the Disciplinary panel, expel the member from the Club or suspend the member from membership of the Club if, after considering the complaint/code of conduct breach and any submissions made in connection with the complaint/code of conduct breach, it is satisfied that the facts alleged in the complaint/code of conduct breach have been proved and the expulsion or suspension is warranted in the circumstances.

10.09 If the Executive Committee expels or suspends a member, the secretary must, within 7 days after the action is taken, cause written notice to be given to the member of the action taken, of the reasons given by the committee for having taken that action and of the member's right of appeal under clause 11.

10.10 The expulsion or suspension does not take effect:

- (a) until the expiration of the period within which the member is entitled to appeal against the resolution concerned, or

- (b) if within that period the member exercises the right of appeal, unless and until the Club confirms the resolution under clause 11, whichever is the later.

10.11 Clause 10.10 does not take into account or supersede any expulsion, suspension or penalty that may be imposed upon the member from the League or governing association of the sport.

11. Right of appeal of disciplined member

11.01 A member may appeal to the Club in general meeting:

- (a) against a resolution of the Executive Committee under clause 10, within 7 days after notice of the resolution is served on the member, by lodging with the secretary a notice to that effect.
- (b) The notice may, but need not, be accompanied by a statement of the grounds on which the member intends to rely for the purposes of the appeal.
- (c) On receipt of a notice from a member under subclause 11.01(a) and 11.01(b), the Secretary must notify the Executive Committee which is to convene a general meeting of the Club to be held within 28 days after the date on which the Secretary received the notice.

11.02 At a general meeting of the Club convened under clause 11.01:

- (a) no business other than the question of the appeal is to be transacted, and
- (b) the Executive Committee and the member must be given the opportunity to state their respective cases orally or in writing, or both, and
- (c) the members present are to vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.

23.03 Teams shall pay their respective accounts as determined by the Executive Committee, to the Treasurer of the Club.

24. Auditing of Accounts:

24.01 The Executive Committee of the Club shall appoint an auditor.

24.02 The accounts of the Club shall be audited before the Annual General Meeting, or as directed by the General Meeting by an auditor and the report of such auditor, together with the Treasurer's Balance Sheet shall be appended to the Annual Report.

25. Financial Year:

25.01 The financial year of the Club will be from the first (1st) day of April to the 31st day of March.

26. Payment of Players:

26.01 No players shall receive payment or monetary consideration for the playing of baseball.

27. Affiliations and Registrations:

27.01 Only members as registered with the Club shall participate in Club matches.

27.02 No player shall play with any other club in the same season unless he/she has been granted a permit to do so under these rules by the Executive Committee.

28. Outstanding Money and Defaults:

28.01 The Club operates a no pay, no play policy which requires player members, officials and other members in an on-field capacity to pay all registration fees, subscriptions, levies, insurances and/or fines prior to being permitted to participate in an on-field capacity.

28.02 Any player member owing money to the Club will not be permitted to take the field until outstanding monies are paid to the Club.

28.03 Failure to pay the Club dues of all kinds, including registration fees, subscriptions, levies, insurances and fines, tickets for club functions issued to a member, may be considered grounds for posting a player or member in default.

28.04 Any member owing money to the Club for a period of five (5) weeks shall be notified by the Secretary of the Club, and if the amount owing be not paid within seven (7) days of the date of such notification, the members may be posted and remain as a defaulter to the Club until the full amount owing has been paid.

28.05 No defaulting member of the Club shall be allowed to take part in any match played under the control of the Club. The Treasurer of the Club must furnish a list in writing of all defaulting members, together with their addresses and the amount they owe to the Executive Committee within one (1) week of the date of posting the defaulting member's name.

28.06 In the event of a team disbanding whilst some members are still in default, the Treasurer shall hold any money paid to him/her by such defaulters in trust until two years have elapsed. At the end of that time if not claimed by such member(s) the money shall revert to the Club.

29. Alterations to Rules:

29.01 To repeal, alter or add to the Clauses of this Constitution, twenty-one (21) days notice shall be given by the Secretary to all Office-bearers, members of the Executive Committee and Life Members. Said alterations shall be carried by three-quarters majority of members present at such a meeting. To repeal, alter or add to the Clauses of this Constitution will be dealt with at the Annual General Meeting or under Rule 16.01

29.02 All alterations of the rules shall be forwarded by the Secretary to all Office-bearers and members of the Executive Committee of the Association within fourteen (14) days of same being adopted.

30. Meeting Procedures:

30.01 At all meetings the mode of voting shall be by vote of hands, or if demanded by any three (3) members, either by actual division or by ballot.

30.02 At all elections each outgoing Office-bearer, Life Member or delegate shall have one vote. All ballot papers recording votes for greater or less number of candidates than is required to fill in vacant Office shall be declared informal and of no effect. At Annual, General or Special Meetings of the Club, each Office-bearer, Life Member, member of the Executive Committee or delegate shall have one (1) vote per person.

30.03 The Chairperson shall put all questions first in the affirmative and then in the negative and may do so as often as may be necessary to enable him/her to determine the sense of the meeting thereon and thereupon he/she shall declare his/her decision which shall be final, unless a division or ballot be called for.

30.04 No motion shall be discussed until it is seconded and once seconded shall not be withdrawn without leave of both the mover and seconded of said motion.

30.05 No notice of motion which shall have been entered on the business paper shall be proceeded with in the absence of the member by whom such notice shall have been given, unless by some other member producing written authority for that purpose from such first named member.

30.06 When a motion shall have been moved and seconded any member shall be at liberty to move an amendment thereon, which shall not be discussed until it be seconded; such amendment, if required, to be stated in writing.

30.07 No second amendment shall be taken into consideration until the previous amendment shall have been disposed of.

30.08 If an amendment be carried, the question as thereby amended shall become the question before the meeting, thereupon any amendment upon it may be moved.

30.09 If any amendment, either upon the original motion or upon any amended motion, shall be negatives, then a further amendment if not to the same effect as that already negative may be moved to the motion to which such named amendment was moved, and so on. Provided that no more than one question and one proposed amendment thereof shall be before the Meeting at one time.

30.10 No member shall make any offensive personal reflections upon or impute improper motives to any member of Office, and any member so offending shall immediately, on being required by the Chairperson, withdraw such offensive expression and retract such imputations of motives, and make such an apology satisfactory to the meeting. Any member refusing to apologise and to withdraw such offensive expressions or imputations shall not be allowed to further address the chair at that or other meetings of the Club, until he/she shall have complied with such request, nor shall his/her vote be recorded upon any question.

30.11 Any member may call the attention of the Chairperson to any member being out of order or to any point of order.

30.12 The Chairperson shall preserve order and may at any time call to order any member whom he may deem to be out of order, and when, two or more members rise to speak at the same time he shall decide which member shall be first heard.

30.13 Every point of order shall be taken into consideration immediately upon its arising and decided by the Chairperson.

30.14 A motion of the 'Previous Question' i.e. that the question be now put, shall be dealt with as an amendment, and it shall take precedence over all other amendments, and if carried, the original question is to be put forthwith, without permitting adjournment, amendment or debate.

30.15 No motion for adjournment can be proposed or seconded by those who have spoken on the motion that is before the meeting, or who may have moved or seconded an amendment thereto. Nor can a motion for adjournment be moved or seconded whilst an amendment is under consideration, by those who have spoken on that amendment.

30.16 No motion to rescind any decision shall be entertained except at a meeting of the Club especially called for that purpose. A meeting convened to consider a specific proposal cannot amend the motion. It may be affirmed or negated.

30.17 Voting by postal ballot must not be undertaken in respect of a general, special or Executive meeting.

31. Life Members:

31.01 Life Members shall be nominated by the Executive Committee to a General Meeting. Such nomination is to appear on the notice calling such General Meeting.

31.02 Election to Life Membership shall only be decided by a vote equal to a two-thirds majority of the members present and who are eligible to vote.

31.03 The criteria for the determination of Life Membership of the Club may include (but is not limited to):

- (a) Length of membership
- (b) Dedication to the ongoing improvement of the Club
- (c) Service in the capacity as an elected Committee member

(d) Service to the wider community engaged in the sport of Baseball, Softball or Tee-ball

31.04 A Life Member of the Club shall receive exemption from registration fees and levies. Membership shall be ongoing with all voting rights and privileges as granted by the title of Life Member.

32. Competition Rules:

32.01 The Executive Committee of the Club, from time to time, establish, add or alter the rules for governing conditions of play, players responsibilities and penalties for any breaches thereof in respect of any games of baseball, softball or tee ball conducted under the auspices of the affiliated Association. Such rules and penalties shall appear as By-Laws to this Constitution and shall form part of it as if they were included in it.

33. Smoking Policy:

33.01 To comply with NSW Anti-Smoking legislation, no member it permitted to smoke on the playing field or in the dugout during the warm up or game or within the confines of the reserve.

34. Alcohol Policy:

34.01 No Coach, Assistant Coach, Manager, Umpire, Scorer or Player may drink alcohol during the warm up or game.

35. Resolution of disputes:

35.01 A dispute between a member and another member (in their capacity as members) of the Club, or a dispute between a member or members and the Club that goes beyond the parameters of the Code of Conduct or Constitution, are to be referred to a Community Justice Centre for mediation under the Community Justice Centres Act 1983.

35.02 If a mediation is not resolved by mediation within 3 months of the referral to a Community Justice Centre, the dispute is to be referred to arbitration

35.03 The Commercial Arbitration Act 1984 applies to any such dispute referred to arbitration.

36. Source of Funds

36.01 The funds of the Club are to be derived from membership fees, donations and, subject to any resolution passed by the Club in General Meeting, such other sources as the Executive Committee determines

36.02 All money received by the Club is to be deposited as soon as practicable and without deduction to the credit of the Club's bank or other authorised deposit-taking institution account.

36.03 The Club must, as soon as practicable after receiving any money, issue an appropriate receipt.

37. Custody and inspection of Club documents

36.04 Except as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the Club President in their capacity as public officer must keep in his or her custody or under his or her control all records, books and other documents relating to the Club

36.05 The Club President must make available to a member of the Club upon said member's request, for inspection free of charge the following documents:

- (a) records, books and other financial documents of the Club
- (b) Club's constitution; and
- (c) The minutes of all meetings of the Club

36.06 In the event that a member requests a copy of a document inspected under 37.02, subject to privacy and confidentiality requirements, the Club may charge a member a reasonable fee for the provision of each copy.

This Constitution was adopted at the Annual General Meeting on the 19th day of April 2015.
